

NEWS OF THE WORLD AS SEEN BY THE CAMERA'S EYE.

RAISING THE HUN FLEET AT SCAPA FLOW.

London—Above is shown a few of the salvaged hulks of part of the German fleet which is being raised by the United Kingdom and the Scapa Flow Salvage Company.

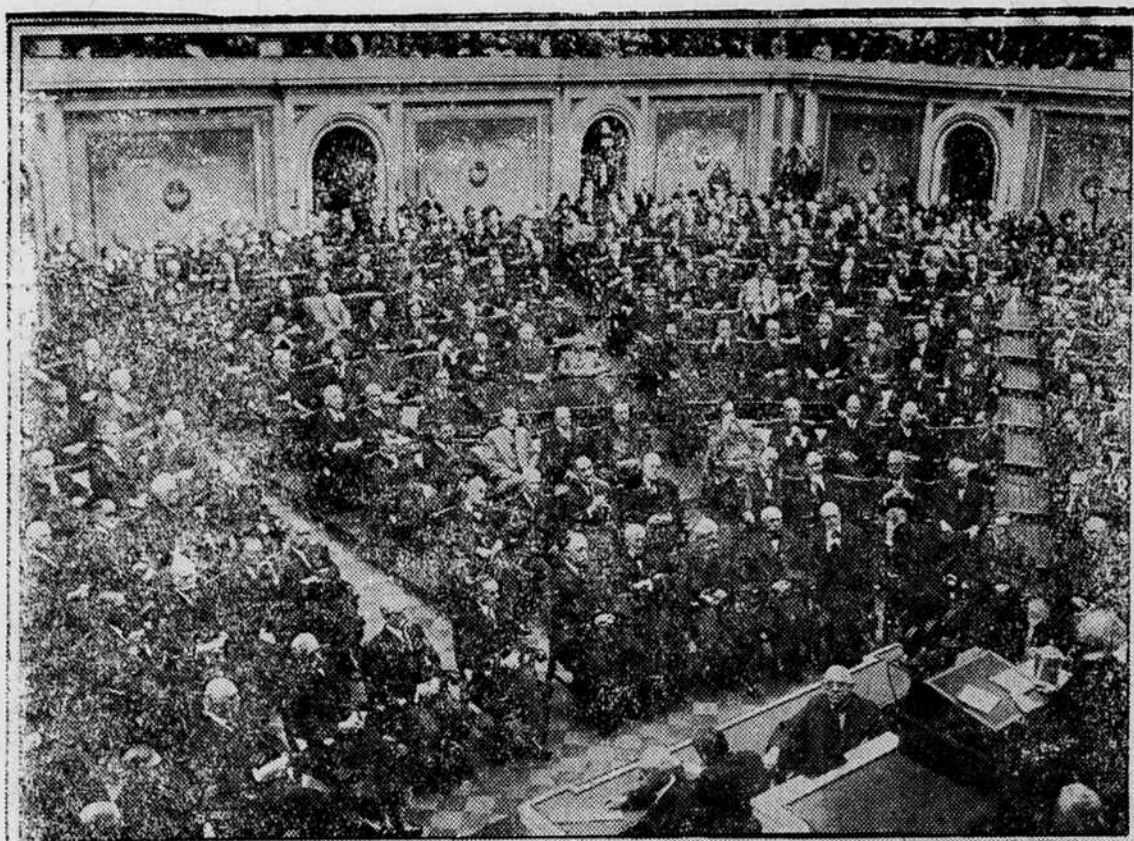

ERMINE CAPE OF 3000 TAILS.

This Ermine cape of 3000 tails was designed and created by America's tiniest milliner, Miss 'Addie'. This is the first time so many individual skins have been used to make a garment. It's lined with Ermine.

FEEDING A CRAB WITH A SPOON.

London—Among the recipients of tender care at the London zoo is this land crab, which has lost its feeding claw and has to be fed from a spoon. This is certainly an unusual way of feeding a crab, but he seems to take to the method naturally.

CONGRESS HONORS MEMORY OF WILSON.

Washington—Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, President of the University of Virginia delivering the memorial address at Wilson Memorial Services held in the House of Representatives.

MAY BE BRITISH DUCHESS.

London—Former Miss Hines, of Alabama, wife of Lord Curzon. He has been elected Lord President of the Council and the King may make

HIS HOLINESS IN LATEST PHOTO.

Rome—His Holiness Pope Pius xi consented to pose for this photograph for the people of the Western Hemisphere and in commemoration of the beginning of the next holy year. This is an exclusive photograph.

FORMER GOMPER'S AIDE.

Boston—James Duncan, first vice president A. F. of L., former head of the Granite Workers Union, who filled President Gomer's seat until election of his successor.